Welcome to Paw Print!

Over the meadow and through the woods, to family and friends' houses we go! The holiday travel season is here and we at Bamboo would like to share some tips to ensure safe and fun travels for you and your pets.

Creating an overnight bag is a great way to make holiday travel less stressful for your pets because it can provide them with comforting reminders of home. Include their favorite treats, toys or blankets to help keep them happy and calm.

Be sure your pets have updated tags on their collars that include your current home address and phone number. It is also a good idea to carry a photo of your pet with you in case your animal is ever lost while traveling.

Whether traveling by plane, train or automobile – you'll want to keep your pet safe and happy on your holiday journey! If you are traveling by car this holiday season please keep your animal safely restrained with Bamboo's Quick Control Leash + Seatbelt Latch.

For good dogs (and cats) on the go, DogToids™ and CatToids™ make the perfect travel treat! Just slip a tin into your glove box, purse or carry-on for a Ferociously Flavorful™ reward for your traveling pet.

Happy Holidays from all of us at Bamboo Pet!

The IRAs honor the pet industry's best products in numerous categories. Water Bottle Crunchers were recognized as an eco-friendly dog toy that provides a new way to recycle plastic water bottles, while your dog has a crunchingly good time! The toy is designed to be easily refillable, so that you may quickly and easily replace a chewed up bottle with a new empty one!

This sleeping beauty is Jasper, a Lynx Point Siamese kitten from Mojave, Calif. Jasper's family adopted him from a shelter a couple of months ago, and he has captured their hearts! He loves to purr loudly, chow down on food and believe it or not, play fetch. Jasper's parents sometimes wonder if he is actually a dog in cat's clothing.

Penny Lane is a three-year-old rescue dog from Los Angeles. Penny's parents often find Penny completely sprawled out on their bed when they get home from work. Penny likes to sneak under the covers in the middle of the night and even likes napping on the couch with the remote nearby!
