pounce & fetch

Gardening and fishing are considered some of the most popular summer pastimes. This year, Fat Cat Inc. unveils new toy designs that allow pet parents to celebrate these great leisure activities with their pets!

Catfisher Fishing Rod & Reel

No kitty can resist this toy! It's all in the bait – the mighty-fine Kitty Lures contain Zoom Around the Room® high-test organic catnip! (No messy worms required!) Cast it out and reel 'em in for hours!

Catfisher Garden Mitt

Lady bugs, bumble bees and flies – oh my! Designed with a colorful outdoor theme, the Fat Cat Garden Mitt brings kitties running and keeps 'em entertained for hours. The bright colors and creatively designed lures will help your cat enjoy the summer as much as you do. Just slip it on your hand and dangle the lures in front of your kitty for hours of fun!

pampered pooch

Cooper is a rescue from Greenhill Humane Society in Eugene, Ore. He is eight-years-old and had a rough life before he was adopted by his adoring family. Cooper has been living with his new family for over two years and is now one mischievous and happy pup! Sometimes he gets in trouble with his mom because he likes to steal rolls of toilet paper and chew them up. But who could stay mad at this pretty pooch-just look at that smile!

Welcome to Paw Print!

Thinking of adopting a kitten? Or perhaps you are looking for a mature adult cat companion? There's no better time than the present as June is National Adopt-a-Shelter-Cat month. Every month, hundreds of homeless kittens fill local shelters, waiting to be adopted into a forever home.

National Adopt-a-Shelter-Cat month was created by the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA). The organization provides a detailed list of tips for selecting the purr-fect pet for your home, ranging from questions to ask while you are at the animal shelter to integrating your new pet into your new home.

in the news

Puppies USA recently included our FurBuster grooming tool in their annual edition of the magazine. Our product won accolades for its low price point and its interchangeable blades – with one tool you can easily groom your puppy with the small blade. You can then upgrade to large blade when he/she is all grown up!

cat's meow

In honor of Adopt-a-Shelter-Cat Month, we wanted to highlight a kitty success story.

Artemis was adopted by his family from a humane society last fall. This cute kitty is a social butterfly who quickly adapted to the comforts of his new home. During his first week at home, Artemis immediately found the pet turtle in the house and began crawling all over its cage. He made sure everyone knew there was a new cat in town! Whenever the meter reader stops by he loves to hop from window to window to try and catch a glimpse of him. Artemis is quite the curious kitty!
