tails and tips

The race is on for the White House, but Fat Cat's got some home-grown candidates of its own that will be seen campaigning all over the country! And who knows... some of 'em may even end up in the White House! (Well, most likely on the floor, but who's counting?).

The dogs have voted and the folks at Fat Cat have listened! Ladies and gentlemen, introducing Political Animals from Fat Cat, Inc. Choose between Bark Obama and John McCanine. These candidates' terms are limited, so get 'em now at PETSMART and other pet retailers before they are out of office!

pampered pooch

Delaney is a five pound miniature Yorkshire Terrier with 200 pounds of personality! This Ohio native fearlessly stands up to dogs ten times her size despite the fact that she still can't jump on the bed because it's too tall. Mom's lil' princess can't sleep unless she's snuggled up with her mom, preferably on her mom's pillow right next to her face. She also loves car rides, especially if she knows she's on her way to the pet store to pick out treats or a new toy!

Do you have a dog or cat that you think should be nominated for the "Bamboo Pet of the Month" award? Please send us a photo, brief description, and any other information on why your pet is deserving of this award to Bamboo Pet of the Month.

bamboo story

Welcome to Paw Print!

Hanging chads? PAWleese – our four-legged friends know how to chomp the vote! To celebrate the launch of Political Animals, Fat Cat asked you to share your point of view on THE most important issues related to pets! In this month's special star-spangled edition of Paw Print, we've compiled the votes and the issues straight from the dog house! WOOF!

When asked which canine candidate you would vote for, 45 percent of voters were barkin' for Bark Obama and 34 percent of voters said that John McCanine made their tails wag. While twenty-two percent were still undecided, it looks like the majority of you pet loving peeps are ready to Sit...Stay...and Speak Up for change!

Some of the great initiatives nipping at our canine constituents' heels include funding for federally protected dog park land and the installation of both a canine bakery and doggie treadmill in the White House! I guess all you dog mammas and poppas sure like to have your cake and eat it too!

But hey, doggy and kitty advocates are not just about the fluff! You also care about the hard hittin' issues like universal pet care. After all, all kibble is not created equal!

Thanks for chomping the vote! Be sure to check out the candidates on the campaign trail here.

in the news

Fat Cat Inc.'s Political Animals were seen campaigning on "The CBS Early Show" last month. Harry Smith and Maggie Rodriguez loved showing off Bark Obama and John McCanine, as over 2.9 million viewers watched and laughed at Fat Cat's political parodies. After all, our mission in life is "to make people and pets laugh!"

cat's meow

Jinx's mom refers to her as her "rag doll" cat who is the ultimate princess! She was adopted by her mom five years ago when she appeared on her doorstep as a stick, starving stray. Jinx has made a full recovery and has been living in her home in Florida ever since! She's a very loving cat who has become the matriarch of the home. Here's to many more years of cuddling with this adorable princess!
